V O Lord, show thy mercy upon us;
R And grant us thy salvation.
V Endue thy ministers with righteousness;
R And make thy chosen people joyful.
V Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;
R For only in thee can we live in safety.
V Lord, keep this nation under thy care;
R And guide us in the way of justice and truth.
V Let thy way be known upon earth;
R Thy saving health among all nations.
V Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
R Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.
V Create in us clean hearts, O God;
R And sustain us with thy Holy Spirit.

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR THE SUNDAY

O God, you make us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of your Son our Lord: Give us this day such blessing through our worship of you, that the week to come may be spent in your favor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A COLLECT FOR PEACE

O God, the author of peace and lover of concord, to know you is eternal life and to serve you is perfect freedom: Defend us, your humble servants, in all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in your defense, may not fear the power of any adversaries; through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR MISSION

Lord Jesus Christ, who didst stretch out thine arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of thy saving embrace: So clothe us in thy Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know thee to the knowledge and love of you; for the honor of thy Name. Amen

The General Thanksgiving

Officiant and people

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. CHRYSOSTOM

Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication unto thee; and hast promised through thy well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name thou wilt be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions of thy servants as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

I will give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

From the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my Name shall be great among the Gentiles, and in every place incense shall be offered unto my Name, and a pure offering: for my Name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Dearly beloved, we have come together in the presence of Almighty God our heavenly Father, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear this holy Word, and to ask, for ourselves and on behalf of others, those things that are necessary for our life and our salvation. And so that we may prepare ourselves in heart and mind to worship him, let us kneel in silence, and with penitent and obedient hearts confess our sins, that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy.

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws, we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, spare thou those who confess their faults, restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord; and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen

- Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.
- Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.
- For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
- In his hand are the caverns of the earth, and the heights of the hills are his also.
- The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands have molded the dry land.
- Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before the Lord our Maker.
- For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

PSALM 99 DOMINUS REGNAVIT

Thomas Attwood

- The LORD is King; let the people tremble; * he is enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth shake.
- The LORD is great in Zion; * he is high above all peoples.
- Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; * he is the Holy One.

4 "O mighty King, lover of justice, you have established equity; * you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."

5 Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God and fall down before his footstool; * he is the Holy One.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, * they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; * they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.

8 O LORD our God, you answered them indeed; * you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds.

9 Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God and worship him upon his holy hill; * for the LORD our God is the Holy One.

THE FIRST LESSON

Exodus 24:12-18

Reading from the Book of Exodus

The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them." Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Canticle 16 Benedictus Dominus Deus S-251

1982 Hymnal

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; * he has come to his people and set them free.

He has raised up for us a mighty savior, * born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old, that he would save us from our enemies, * from the hands of all who hate us.

He promised to show mercy to our fathers * and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham, * to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

Free to worship him without fear, * holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, * for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,

To give his people knowledge of salvation * by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God * the dawn from on high shall break upon us,

To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, * and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

THE SECOND LESSON

2 Peter 1:16-21

A Reading from the Second Letter of Peter

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

1982 HYMNAL

Matthew 17:1-9

THE THIRD READING

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

NOTICES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

LITURGICAL PROCEDURES

BAPTISM: Holy Baptism will be administered at the proper liturgical times, namely: (1) Easter Vigil, (2) Day of Pentecost (3) All Saints' Day and (4) The Feast of the Baptism of our Lord. Outside of these feast days, Holy Baptism is reserved for the last Sunday of each month along with Morning Prayer. All baptisms are reserved for the Easter Vigil, Saturday, April 15th at 6:00 pm. There are no baptism in Lent.

FROM THE RECTOR

The Rector will meet with all Lay Readers, adults and children in the church following today's service.

Pursuant to the Bishop's mandate, during the season of Lent, dialogue about racial justice and reconciliation should be continued at home with your family members.

Confirmation classes are held on Mondays at 6:00 pm. Adults wanting to be confirmed are invited to attend the confirmation sessions. Please see the Rector or call the office for an application.

All persons contributing towards the Bridge Offering to reduce the deficit in our 2017 Mission Plan, should mark on the envelope used for this purpose "Bridge Offering". Remember the asking is for everyone to try to contribute an extra $5.00 per week or $20.00 per month or a one-time contribution of $260 for the year (52 weeks x $5.00).

The Rector is seeking someone to spearhead a new ministry called "Comfort Givers." This ministry would comfort bereaved families by assisting with the preparations, hosting, and serving of a reception in the parish hall after a funeral. Interested persons are asked to contact Fr. Miles.

MEETINGS

CDC will meet on Monday, February 27th at 7:30 pm for their annual meeting.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

- † Giving reflects the attitude of our heart.
- † Giving reflects our relationship with God.
- † Giving is a mirror of the soul.
- † It's not the size of the gift that matters. It's the size of the heart of the giver that matters.
- † It's not what we have, but how we care for what we have that makes the difference in what we are given.

From the Rector's Desk

Think on these things...

for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

luke 12:34

Think of life as something God has given us to manage or take care of. Everything comes from God. We may use our talent or ability to achieve material goods, but the talent or ability is a gift from God to begin with. Once you look at life this way, as a steward, it becomes clear that we just give of what we are, as well as, what we have. It means cultivating an attitude of generous giving and getting into the habit of thinking of others.

Christian stewardship recognizes and accepts the reality that our human existence and personal resources and fields of labor and witness, the earth's resources, and above all, the gospel itself, depend on God's creative, sustaining, redemptive work. Stewardship is every Christian's true vocation. Stewardship is every congregation's primary responsibility.

Christian stewardship takes a positive view on money. It sees money not only as a medium of exchange, but a symbol of the person who has it. The way we acquire it, use it, and share it, are revealed in those actions.

Christian stewardship trains us to become aware that God is the ultimate giver of the gift we have. To give to God should be "from the top," ...not what may be left over.
